Holiday Foods to Boost Immunity!

With holiday festivities in full swing, find simple ways to boost your immunity so you don't miss out due to illness. Whether you're a host or a guest, create a menu with snack boards and side dishes featuring fresh produce.

Keep it within budget; check for sales and choose bulk packaged items. Grab a bag of apples and try these creatively delicious options. Apples contain many important immune-boosting nutrients such as vitamin C, potassium, magnesium and vitamins B6 and K.

Healthy Whipped Ricotta Board with Apples

Ingredients:

- 2 apples, cored and sliced thin
- 1/4 cup pecans chopped
- 3/4 cup part-skim ricotta
- 1/4 cup less sugar vanilla Greek yogurt
- 1 navel orange, zested and juiced
- 3 sprigs of thyme
- Optional: French bread, cheddar cheese, and prosciutto

Directions:

1. In a blender or food processor, add ricotta, Greek yogurt, zest, juice from the naval orange, thyme and honey. Pulse/blend until smooth, this will only take a second or two! You can also do this with a fork.
2. Spread on your favorite board.
3. Garnish with pecans and thyme.
4. Serve with sliced apples, bread, cheese and prosciutto.
